- a) The notice referred to above shall be dispatched through registered post or speed post or through electronic mode to all the existing Members at least 3 (three) days before the opening of the issue.
  - b) Nothing in this Article shall apply to the increase of the subscribed capital of the Company caused by the exercise of an option as a term attached to the debentures issued or loan raised by the Company to convert such debentures or loans into shares in the Company, provided however, that the terms of issue of such debentures or loan containing such an option have been approved before the issue of such debentures or the raising of loan by a Special Resolution passed by the Company in a General Meeting.

- c) The Company may, subject to Section 42 and all other applicable provisions of the Act and these Articles, make private placement through issue of a private placement offer letter, provided however that the offer of securities through private placement, shall not be made to such number of persons exceeding the limit prescribed under the Act.
7. Commissions for placing shares : Subject to the provisions of Section 40 of the Act, the Company may at any time pay a commission to any person in connection with subscription of or procurement of subscription to any securities of the subscription to any securities of the Company in accordance with the conditions set out in the Companies (Prospectus and Allotment of Securities) Rules, 2014 and any other applicable provisions of the Act.
8. Brokerage : The Company may also, on any issue of shares or debentures, pay such reasonable brokerage as may be allowed under applicable laws.
9. Redeemable preference shares : Subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, the Company shall have the power to issue on a cumulative or non-cumulative basis, preference shares liable to be redeemed in any manner permissible under the Act and the Directors may, subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, exercise such power in any manner as they deem fit and provide for redemption of such shares on such terms including the right to redeem at a premium or otherwise as they deem fit. The Company, subject to the applicable provisions of the Act and the consent of the Board, shall have power to issue on a cumulative or non-cumulative basis convertible preference shares liable to be converted in any manner permissible under the Act and the Directors may, subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, exercise such power as they deem fit and provide for conversion at a premium or otherwise and/or conversion of such shares on such terms as they may deem fit.
10. Shares may be issued subject to different conditions as to calls etc : The Company may make arrangements on the issue of shares in such a manner to provide for difference in the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment of calls to be paid and the time of payment of calls for holders of such shares.
11. Instalments on shares to be duly paid : If by the conditions of allotment of any share, the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being shall be registered holder of the share.
12. Liability of joint-holders of shares : The joint holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of such share.
13. Registered holder to be the absolute owner : Save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not, except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as by statute required, be bound to recognize any, equitable or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person.

CERTIFICATES

14. Certificates : The Company shall issue, re-issue and issue duplicate share certificates in accordance with the provisions of the Act and in the form and manner prescribed under the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014. If any certificate be worn out, defaced, destroyed or lost or if there be no further space on the back thereof for endorsement of transfer, then upon production thereof to the Board, they, may order the same to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof and if any certificate be lost or destroyed then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Board and on such indemnity as the Board deem adequate being given, a duplicate certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the party entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate. The Company may charge a sum not exceeding Rs 50 (Rupees Fifty) to be paid to the Company for every duplicate certificate issued under this Article, as the Board may fix from time to time, provided that no fee shall be charged for issue of new certificate in replacement of those which are old, worn, decrepit out or where the pages on the reverse for recording transfers have been fully utilized. The provisions of this Article shall mutatis mutandis apply to debentures and other securities of the Company.
15. Limitation of time for issue of certificates : Every Member or allottee of shares shall be entitled without payment, to receive one or more certificates specifying the name of the person in whose favour it is issued, the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. Such certificates shall be issued only in pursuance of a resolution passed by the Board and on surrender to the Company of its letter of allotment or its fractional coupon of requisite value, save in cases of issue of share certificates against letters of acceptance or of renunciation, or in cases of issue of bonus shares. Such share certificates shall also be issued in the event of consolidation or sub-division of shares of the Company. Every such certificate shall be issued in the manner prescribed under the Act. Particulars of every share certificate issued shall be entered in the Register against the name of the person, to whom it has been issued, indicating the date of issue. A certificate issued under the seal of the Company, if any, or signed by two Directors or by a Director and the Secretary, specifying the shares held by any person shall be prima facie evidence of the title of the person to such shares. Where the shares are held in dematerialised form, the record of depository shall be the prima facie evidence of the interest of the beneficial owner.
16. Sub-division of certificates minimum denomination : The Board may, at their absolute discretion, refuse any applications for the sub-division of share certificates or debenture certificates, into denominations less than marketable lots except where sub-division is required to be made to comply with any statutory provision or an order of a competent court of law or at a request from a Member or to convert holding of odd lot into transferable/marketable lot. Where share certificates are issued in either more or less than marketable lots, sub-division or consolidation of share certificates into marketable lots shall be done free of charge.
17. To which of joint holders' certificate to be issued : The certificates of shares registered in the names of two or more persons shall be delivered to the person first named on the Register.
18. The Depositories Act and depository : For the purpose of Articles 20A and 20B appearing hereunder (a) "The Depositories Act" shall mean Depositories Act, 1996; and includes any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force, and (b) 'Depositor' shall have the meaning assigned thereto by the Depositories Act.

19. Dematerialization and rematerialisation of securities : Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the Company shall dematerialize its shares, debentures and other securities, rematerialize the same and allot new shares, debentures or other securities in a dematerialized form in accordance with and/or conforming to the provisions of the Depositories Act. The rights and obligations of the concerned parties in respect of the shares, debentures and other securities in the dematerialization form, ~~and all matters~~ connected therewith and/or incidental thereto shall be governed by the provisions of the Depositories Act and the relevant provisions of the Act.
20. Option for investors : Every person subscribing to or holding shares, debentures and other securities of the Company shall have the option to receive certificates therefor or to hold the same with a Depository in dematerialized form. A beneficial owner, i.e. a person whose name is recorded as such in a Depository in respect of the securities, can at any time opt out of the Depository, if permitted by law, and in such a case the Company shall, in the manner and within the time as prescribed, issue the required certificates in respect of the subject securities to the beneficial owner.

CALLS

21. Calls : The Directors may from time to time, subject to the terms on which any shares may have been issued and to the provisions of Section 49 and other applicable provisions of the Act and of these Articles, make such calls as they think fit upon the Members in respect of all monies unpaid on the shares held by them respectively, and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times and each Member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors, provided, however, that calls on shares of the same class issued on the same terms and conditions shall be on a uniform basis. A call may be made payable by instalments. A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Directors.
22. When call deemed to have been made : A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing such call was passed.
23. Notice of call : Not less than 14 (fourteen) days' notice of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment and to whom such call shall be paid.
24. When interest on call or instalment payable : If the sum payable in respect of any call instalment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made or the instalment shall be due shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 10 percent per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment or at such other rate as the Director may determine.
25. Amount payable at fixed times or by instalments payable as calls : If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at fixed times, whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium, every such amount or instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice had been given, and all the provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall relate to such amount or instalment accordingly.

26. Evidence in actions by Company against members : On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any Member or his representatives to recover any debit or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was when the claim arose on the Register of the Company as a holder or one of the holders of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made any call, nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other matter whatsoever; but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.
27. Payment in anticipation of call may carry interest : The Directors may, if they think fit, subject to the provisions of the Act, agree to and receive from any Member willing to advance the same whole or any part of the monies due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the amount so paid or satisfied in advance or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate not exceeding 12% (twelve percent) per annum, as the Member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon provided that money paid in advance of calls shall not confer a right to participate in profits or dividends. The Directors may at any time repay the amount so advanced. The Member shall not be entitled to any voting rights in respect of the monies so paid by him until the same would but for such payment, become presently payable. The provisions of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis apply to the calls on debentures of the Company.

FORFEITURE AND LIEN

28. If call or instalment not paid notice may be given : If any Member fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Member requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
29. Form of Notice : The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days from the date of the notice), and a place or places on and at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or instalment in payable will be liable to be forfeited.
30. If notice not complied with shares may be forfeited : If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or instalments, interest and expenses due in respect thereof be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
31. Notice for forfeiture : When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the resolution shall be given to the Members in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to make such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.

32. Forfeited share to become property of the Company : Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit.
33. Power to annual forfeiture : The Directors may, at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been disposed of annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as they think fit.
34. Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture : Any Member whose shares have been forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the shares are forfeited, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at 12% (twelve percent) per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof without any deduction nor allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture, if they think fit.
35. Effect of forfeiture : The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the company in respect of the share and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.
36. Evidence of forfeiture : A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company and that certain shares in the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares and such declaration and the receipt of the company for the consideration, if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares; and the person to whom the shares are sold shall be registered as the holder of such shares and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition.
37. Company's lien on shares/ debentures : The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares/debentures (other than fully paid-up shares/debentures) registered in the name of each Member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares/debentures and on equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that this Article will have full effect and such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses from time to time declared in respect of such shares/debentures, unless otherwise agreed the registration of transfer of shares/ debentures shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares/debentures. The Directors may at any time declare any shares/debentures wholly or in part to be exempt from the provisions of this Article.
38. As to enforcing lien by sale : For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit but no sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived and until notice in writing of

26. Evidence in actions by Company against members : On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any Member or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was when the claim arose on the Register of the Company as a holder or one of the holders of the number of shares in respect of which such claim is made and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made any call, nor that a quorum of Directors was present at the Board at which any call was made nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other matter whatsoever; but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.
27. Payment in anticipation of call may carry interest : The Directors may, if they think fit, subject to the provisions of the Act, agree to and receive from any Member willing to advance the same whole or any part of the monies due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the amount so paid or satisfied in advance or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate not exceeding 12% (twelve percent) per annum, as the Member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon provided that money paid in advance of calls shall not confer a right to participate in profits or dividends. The Directors may at any time repay the amount so advanced. The Member shall not be entitled to any voting rights in respect of the monies so paid by him until the same would but for such payment, become presently payable. The provisions of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis apply to the calls on debentures of the Company.

FORFEITURE AND LIEN

28. If call or instalment not paid notice may be given : If any Member fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Member requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
29. Form of Notice : The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days from the date of the notice), and a place or places on and at which such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or instalment in payable will be liable to be forfeited.
30. If notice not complied with shares may be forfeited : If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or instalments, interest and expenses due in respect thereof be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
31. Notice for forfeiture : When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the resolution shall be given to the Members in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to make such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.

32. Forfeited share to become property of the Company : Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit.
33. Power to annual forfeiture : The Directors may, at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been disposed of annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as they think fit.
34. Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture : Any Member whose shares have been forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the shares are forfeited, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at 12% (twelve percent) per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof without any deduction nor allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture, if they think fit.
35. Effect of forfeiture : The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the company in respect of the share and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.
36. Evidence of forfeiture : A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company and that certain shares in the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares and such declaration and the receipt of the company for the consideration, if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares; and the person to whom the shares are sold shall be registered as the holder of such shares and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such shares be affected by and irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition.
37. Company's lien on shares/ debentures : The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares/debentures (other than fully paid-up shares/debentures) registered in the name of each Member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares/debentures and on equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that this Article will have full effect and such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses from time to time declared in respect of such shares/debentures, unless otherwise agreed the registration of transfer of shares/ debentures shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares/debentures. The Directors may at any time declare any shares/debentures wholly or in part to be exempt from the provisions of this Article.
38. As to enforcing lien by sale : For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit but no sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such Member, his executors or administrators, or his committee, curator bonis or other legal curator, and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment of monies called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares for seven days after such notice.

39. Application of proceeds of sale : The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the monies called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares of such Member, and the residue (if any) may be retained with the Company.
40. Validity of sales under Articles 33 and 39 : Upon any forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the power hereinbefore given, the Directors may appoint some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register as holder of the shares sold in substitution for the name of the holder whose shares have been sold and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceeding nor to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the Register as holder of such shares the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.
41. Directors may issue new certificates : Where any shares under the powers in that behalf herein contained are sold by the Directors and the certificate thereof has not been delivered up to the Company by the former holder of the said shares, the Directors may issue a new certificate for such shares distinguishing it in such manner as they may think fit from the certificate not so delivered up.

In case of transfer of shares where the shares are held in dematerialized form, along with the applicable provisions of the Act, the provisions of the Depositories Act shall apply. Subject to the provisions of the Act, no transfer of shares held in physical form shall be registered unless a proper instrument of transfer duly stamped and executed by the transferor and the transferee has been delivered to the Company together with the certificate or certificate of the shares. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be signed both by the transferor and transferee, and shall contain the name and address and other particulars as required in the transfer form prescribed under the Act, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof. Signature of transferor to such transfer shall be duly attested by the signature of one credible witness who shall add his address, occupation and father's/husband's name.
43. Applications by transferor : Application for the registration of the transfer of a share held in physical form may be made either by the transferor or the transferee, provided that where such application is made by the transferor no registration shall in the case of partly paid share be effected unless the Directors give notice of the application to the transferee in the manner prescribed by the Act, and subject to the provisions of these Articles the Directors shall, unless objection is made by the transferee within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice, enter in the Register the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for registration was made by the transferee.

44. Instrument of transfer : The instrument of transfer shall be in writing and all provisions of the Act shall be duly complied with in respect of all transfer of shares and registration thereof.
45. Directors may refuse to and register transfer : Subject to the provisions of Section 58 all other applicable provisions of the Act and Section 22A of the Securities Contracts(Regulation) Act, 1956, the Directors may, at their own absolute and uncontrolled discretion and by giving reasons, decline to register or acknowledge any transfer of shares held in physical form whether fully paid or not and the right of refusal shall not be affected by the circumstances that the proposed transferee is already a Member of the Company but in such cases, the Directors shall within 30 days or such number of days as per the applicable SEBI Regulation, whichever is earlier from the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee and transferor notice of the refusal to register such transfer provided that registration of transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company or any account whatsoever except when the Company has a lien on the shares. Transfer of shares/debentures in whatever lot shall not be refused.
46. No transfer to infant, etc. : No transfer shall be registered in favour of a person known to be an infant or person of unsound mind or any other person otherwise disqualified in law to hold shares.
47. Transfer to be left at office and evidence of title given : Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the office for registration, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred, and such other evidence as the Directors may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares, and upon payment of the proper fee the transferee shall (subject to the Directors' right to decline to register hereinbefore mentioned) be registered as a Member in respect of such shares. The Directors may waive the production of any certificate upon evidence satisfactory to them of its loss or destruction.
48. When transfer to be retained : All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which, the Directors may decline to register shall be returned to the person depositing the same.
49. No fee on transfer or transmission : No fee shall be charged for registration of transfer, transmission probate succession certificate and letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney or other similar document.
50. When transfer books and Register may be closed : The Board shall have power on giving not less than 7 (seven) days previous notice or such lesser period as may be specified by SEBI, by advertisement in a vernacular newspaper and in an English newspaper having wide circulation in the city, town or village in which the Office of the Company is situated and by publishing a notice on the website of the Company, to close the transfer books, the Register and/or register of debenture-holders at such time or times and for such period or periods, not exceeding 30 (thirty) days at a time and not exceeding in the aggregate 45 (forty-five) days in each year.
51. Transmission of registered shares as to survivorship : In case of death of the sole Member of any registered share, the nominee or nominees concerned and in the absence thereof, the executors or administrators of a deceased Member (not being one of several joint-holders) shall be the persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such Member. In case of the death of any one or more of the joint-holders of any registered share, the survivors shall be the only persons, having the first right in respect thereof, to be recognised by the Company as having any title to or interest in such shares, but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint-holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person. Subject to the above, before recognising any executor or administrator the Directors may require him to obtain a grant of probate or letters of administration or other legal representation as the case may be, from some competent court in India, provided nevertheless that in any case where the Directors in their absolute discretion think fit, it shall be lawful for the Directors to dispense with the production of probate or letters of administration or such other legal representation upon such terms as to indemnity or otherwise as the Directors in their absolute discretion may consider necessary.

52. As to transfer of shares of insane, infant, deceased or insolvent Members' : Any committee or guardian of a lunatic or infant or any person becoming entitled to or to transfer shares in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or insolvency of any Member, upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article, or of his title as the Directors think sufficient, may, with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give), be registered as a Member in respect of such share, or may subject to the regulation as to transfer hereinbefore contained, transfer such shares. This Article is hereinafter referred to as the Transmission Article.
53. Nomination facilities : Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, every holder of shares in or debentures of the Company may, at any time, nominate, in the prescribed manner under the applicable provisions of the Act and the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014, a person to whom his shares or debentures shall vest in the event of his death.
